Intensive IELTS training Classes resume in Spring

Our four week residential IELTS intensive courses begin in May 2013. These are specifically designed to prepare students for the IELTS examination, whilst working on key grammar skills. We are running two options, one on a four day basis, and another on a five day. Both benefit from two highly skilled teachers per small class, and the courses have been written by qualified IELTS examiners.

MORE COURSES at OEA

Courses can be designed to fit your particular needs and levels. We can change the days and hours to suit your requirements and should you wish, we can come to your office or workplace to provide lessons.

In addition to the current courses, we can offer tuition for Cambridge exams, Business English and English for specific purposes.
